As to the last three we do not understand residence. His and Maj. Brown's sale present. The call for the primaries direct ed the "sub-committeemen for each civ tween the hours of 2 and 4 p. m." and this was generally construed to mean that the ill parties who will certainly marry delegates were to be selected by ballot and within the next week or two should call and see Henry Y. Cox at Embry & Friersons at ouce.

the polls kept open from 2 to 4 o'clock so that all could have a fair chance to vote. The anti-Whitthorne men, so construed the call and were very active in getting out their strength. They heard, however, that the Whitthorne men, fearing their strength intended to abandon the idea of a ballot and to assemble early, put their own man in the chair, nominate a ticket, vote viva THE CLIMAX OF MANAGERIAL voce and have their man announce that the ayes had it and then suddenly adjourn.
